One of the downsides of Word Connect, and given that any puzzle problem provides very little up-front information, is that you are likely to get stuck. Don't worry. We'll protect you. Too many yuan? No problem. Overloaded by the negatives? There's a list for that. WordFinder has a whole collection of word lists designed specifically to help gamers from unstuck. Keep it simple. Word Connect does not overgiven to legerdemain vocabulary. That is, it mostly likes common words. If you're stuck on a specific void, don't rack your brain, or dictionary, for every single half legal three-letter words starting with C. Instead, surf our list of them. Try the most common sounds first. Think space. One of the most interesting things about Word Connect is that, although super simple, it makes your brain work in new ways. By severely limiting the number of possible answers, it forces you to consider the unusual arrangement of the letters. You cannot brute force a Word Connect solution. Instead, you have to think space. Close your eyes and picture the letters according to different orders. We guarantee you'll see at least one you didn't think of. Level Up on Word ConnectWord Connect begins with two attractions familiar to any word gamer: a set of spaces and a set of letters. Connect the letters to make the words (hereby attractive names) and fill in the blanks. Fill in all the gaps and you are reduced to the next level. And there are hundreds, now thousands, of levels to play through. Now you're glad you saved your coins using WordFinder! Swipe in a Word Bonus (as in, it's a word that really fits the void but it's not what the puzzle is looking for) and it goes into the Bonus Box. Put enough words in the bonus box and you get extra coins. Coins keep score and allow you to buy useful powerups. Have fun playing games!
